

The Logan Report

by Michael Logan

GH: The Nanny Goes Wild

General Hospital fans already know that Colleen, the nanny played by adorable Amanda Tepe, is crazy as hell.

But this is pushing it: On December 5, we learn that Colleen has kidnapped Helena Cassadine (Connie Towers), the most lethal villain in GH history, and has her bound and gagged at Wyndemere Castle. A foolhardy move? "I prefer to call it ballsy," Tepe says with a laugh. "Colleen is out of control and not concerned about the consequences." Ya think? Next week the nutsy nursemaid—who is creepily devoted to Spencer, the infant Cassadine heir—will get herself an apartment and start building a nursery. Are we gearing up for a festive Christmas baby-snatching? "Colleen definitely has a plan in motion," Tepe says. "She's a girl in pursuit of happiness." This can't end well.

